MiLife Riversdale Lifestyle Village is an exciting place to live and it's a pleasure to introduce the manager Sam Elder. Sam is a 'people person' who thrives on ensuring the best possible outcomes for every resident.

"Each day it's a pleasure coming to work at MiLife Riversdale Lifestyle Village where I can make a genuine difference to resident's lives and contribute to providing a great retirement living experience to all residents.

"I really enjoy the calm atmosphere, community spirit, and beautiful environment at Riversdale."

I really enjoy the calm atmosphere, community spirit, beautiful environment at Riversdale. It's great managing a boutique village of 57 villas, where I can quickly respond to residents needs without them having to experience the complications or delays that can come with being part of a large corporate", says Sam.

“Our life has been enriched through the experiences, residents and freedom Riversdale has offered us.”

Relocating to Riversdale Lifestyle Village some 4 years ago was a very positive move for us, and our life has been enriched through the experiences, residents, and freedom Riversdale has offered us.

With circa 70 residents, the Village has a unique character in that our homes are spacious, the grounds are attractive and well maintained by Laurie, and the Centre’s facilities cater to, and offer many options we residents may request from time to time.

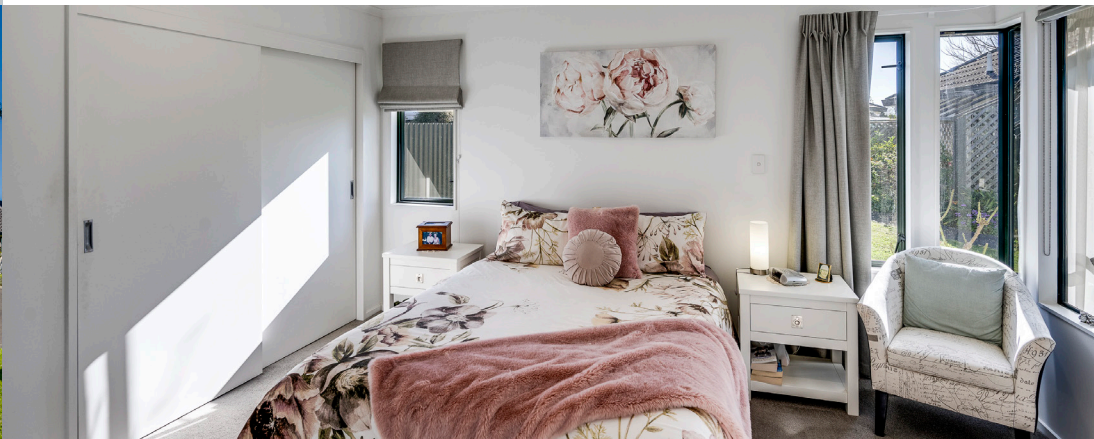

We have free reign planting our own gardens, indoor/outdoor decor, entertaining indoors/outdoors, without compromising our privacy. Our active Social Committee is continually planning events, and the current monthly occasions are enjoyed by all who come along, as is Happy Hour on Thursdays and Fridays.

The Commander in Chief, Sam Elder is to be commended for his dedication to the Village and we Residents never ending ‘wants and needs.’ His zest for life is infectious and ultimately has a flow-on effect through Riversdale. With so many different personalities, it makes for an interesting and varied life for us.

We would recommend anyone thinking about retirement living to come and view the Open Homes and decide for yourselves.

Riversdale is an easy kind of living which we just love!
